

TECHNICAL REPORT WRITING & PRESENTATION SKILLS

Well written reports result in cost and time savings as both specialist and non-specialist readers can quickly get actionable information from a single report. Decision makers and other readers can quickly understand the benefits of a successful implementation of the report recommendations.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This workshop is intended for people who need to craft reports which clearly identify the information required by decision makers, guide them to key findings using structured report components, and finally justify the recommended solutions by using critical analysis.

BENEFITS

- Connect to readers by empathizing with their needs
- Improve decision making by understanding the context of making recommendations
- Save time by focusing on the implication and consequences of high impact alternatives

OBJECTIVES

- Identify information required by readers
- Help readers find information by using structured report components
- Justify recommendations by critical analysis of recommended solutions

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of the workshop, participants should be able to:

- Understand what each individual report component is intended to achieve
- Appreciate how the individual components integrate with one another to achieve the ultimate report objectives
- Craft reports that convey clearly to readers what the report was intended to achieve, what was discovered, and what needs to be done
- Well equipped on how to win approvals for report recommendations using oral presentations.
